

Modern Slavery Act 2015

Galloper Wind Farm Holding Company Limited and Galloper Wind Farm Limited Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement 2022

Galloper Wind Farm Limited and its holding company Galloper Wind Farm Holding Company Limited ("the Companies") owns Galloper offshore wind farm, a 353MW offshore wind farm located 30km off the coast of Suffolk.

The Companies have appointed RWE Renewables UK Swindon Limited to provide services to it under a Management Services Agreement.

The Companies are committed to both the statutory requirements under the Modern Slavery Act 2015, and to acting with integrity in all business dealings and relationships to have a zero-tolerance approach to Modern Slavery. This is a position which they expect all of their suppliers to respect and adopt.

The Companies have instructed RWE Renewables UK Swindon Limited to:

- (i) implement and enforce effective systems of controls to ensure that Modern Slavery is not taking place anywhere within either of its or the Companies' business or in any of its or the Companies' supply chains; and
- (ii) ensure that where contracts are negotiated with third parties in the Companies' name and on the Companies' behalf that such contracts provide suitable provisions relating to the systems of control that such third parties are taking to ensure that Modern Slavery is not taking place within their business and supply chains.

Details of the measures implemented by RWE Renewables UK Swindon Limited, on behalf of the Companies, are set out in the RWE Renewables' anti-slavery and human trafficking statement published on the RWE Group website:
